- Responsibility for the budgeting, ordering, and provision of bar supplies prior to the event, as well as financial and logistic responsibility for all transactions and profits on the day of the event;

- Allocating catering spaces with support of Event Producer & Asst. Event Producer;
- Liaising with Event Producer & Asst. Event Producer for requirements for and from Caterers;
- Supporting the Production and Events team, and the wider committee, as required.

Skills and experience required:

- Experience of project management, especially projects or events involving complex issues;
- Experience of managing budgets, particularly within a hospitality/catering context would be an advantage;
- Experience of team management, particularly within a hospitality/catering context would be an advantage;
- Experience of administration and coordinating teams;
- Strong time management, organisational and administrative skills;
- Meticulous attention to detail;
- Ability to self-motivate when working remotely;
- Strong written and oral communication skills;
- Effective team-working skills and ability to motivate others;
- An understanding of the needs of bi people and communities in the UK and an interest and passion for tackling discrimination against and improving the visibility of people in the UK who experience attraction to more than one gender;
- Commitment to the aims and objectives of Bi Pride UK;

What you'll get out of the role:

- Team management experience for a large-scale voluntary event;
- Budget management experience, particularly for catering provision;
- Stronger event management experience, particularly with regard to catering event activities;
- Stronger teamwork experience within a voluntary context;
- A better understanding of remote teamworking and self-motivation when working remotely;
- The opportunity to liaise and network with other activists, including those from other organisations in the GRSD (Gender, Romantic and Sexual Diversity) community;
- A better understanding of the bi community within the UK

How to apply

If you're interested and want to apply, please send your CV and a cover letter of no more than one A4 page to volunteer@biprideuk.org.

Bi Pride UK is aware of the barriers that can be faced in gaining traditional work experience, particularly for BAME, disabled and trans people. We will give weight to this and encourage people when applying to consider caring responsibilities, including parenthood, volunteering, and other non-paid experiences and responsibilities when making their application.
